Invoices in your inbox

The LAST tuition payment of the year is due Feb. 7th. Invoices were emailed last week. If you did not receive yours, please contact Veronica at connections.treasurer@gmail.com. Feel free to drop off your payment at the Welcome Table or mail it to the PO box (be sure it arrives by Feb. 7th). Payments will not be deposited before Feb. 7th.

Grateful for you!

We've said it before, but we mean it. Thank you for being an integral part of our community. Homeschool Connections would not exist if you weren't there playing your part. Thank you for all of your effort in making our community great! Let us encourage you to expand your community by welcoming someone you don't normally visit with.

Supply fees

A few of our teachers divide their supply fees into two payments. The second payment was due last week. Please make checks payable to the teacher and turn them in to your facilitator. If you are unsure which classes require a payment, stop by the Welcome Table.

“How did you break your leg?”

The elevators are reserved for teachers with supply carts and those who cannot use the stairs. Please remind your students to only use the elevator if they cannot take the stairs or are with a parent who needs to use the elevator. This is at the request of the churches. Thank you!

Stay up to date

This past week many people either didn't receive the newsletter or it went to their junk mail. No more worrying about missing information! The weekly newsletter will now be available on our website by Monday morning. Look in the left-side menu for “Newsletters” or go to <http://homeschool-connections.com/Newsletters.aspx>.
