week of February 12, 2018

Monday's Open Study Hall

Please remind your students to not plug in the Christmas lights or touch any of the music/sound equipment in the Open Study Hall room. These items are for the church's use, not ours. Thanks!

Happy Valentine's Day!

Did you know teachers receive the most Valentine's Day cards, followed by children, mothers, wives, sweethearts, and pets. We wish all our families, but especially our teachers a wonderful Valentine's Day!

Black and White

Our yearbook staff invites all students to participate in Black and White Theme Days this week. Students, come dressed in black and white and have your picture taken by the yearbook staff for the yearbook.

Coming and Going

A reminder to use only the South entrance doors to enter or leave the building on Wednesdays. When you have to park farther away, consider it an opportunity to get those steps in! Please refrain from taking a short cut through the building and using entrances we're not supposed to use. Also, when dropping off kids at the front entrance, please do not linger any longer than necessary as teachers and families are also waiting to unload. Thanks for your consideration!

Time for a Break!

A reminder that next week is Midwinter Break. There are no classes on February 19th and 21st. Enjoy your time off!
