Let it snow!

Class delays and cancelations due to weather will be posted on our website. In general, we follow the Edmonds School District for Mondays and the Northshore School District for Wednesdays. If we need to cancel or delay start times for classes due to snow, our website will be updated that morning and emails will be sent thereafter.

week of February 25, 2018

Welcome back!

Classes resume this week. We hope you made some great family memories over the break (or at least caught up on schoolwork!).

Parent's Hang Out

All adults are invited to fellowship in a new space this Wednesday. Come hang out and meet other parents in the Imagine Café on the first floor near the coffee stand. This is a one-day use to help us discern whether we might be able to provide an adult-only space next year. However, please be mindful that we are still to not use the outside entrance doors to this North Lobby.

Brrr...it might be cold...

Northlake Church, our Monday location, has a broken HVAC system that provides heat for Study Hall, room 119, and the piano lesson room. Until further notice, if you are in these rooms please wear an extra layer for warmth as it may be a while before it will be fixed.
