Find us on Facebook!

You should have received an email to join our new Facebook page. This is a great place to post pictures, ask questions, let everyone know about events, sell curriculum, etc. As with all social media, please be mindful of what you post. If you missed the invite, go to <https://www.facebook.com/pg/HSCconnections> to join, and please take a moment to invite your friends (especially Connections families).

Save the Date!

On March 29th at 7:00pm, we are having our first Open House/Curriculum Night at Northlake (Monday's location). This is a night for parents to meet and visit with teachers, peruse next year's classes and curriculum, ask questions, and bump into other Connections families without kids in tow. Please invite any friends who may be interested in Connections or homeschooling. Looking forward to seeing you there!
